We'll Always Have Summer

The book cover has a solid purple background. It is decorated with several watercolor-style illustrations of beach items: a large green seashell in the top right, a small brown seashell to its left, a large white seashell on the right, a brown seashell on the left, a red seashell in the bottom left, a green seashell in the bottom center, and a yellow starfish on the right. A small purple flower with a green stem is placed near the word 'Summer'. The title 'We'll Always Have Summer' is written in a large, white, cursive font. Below the title, the author's name 'Jenny Han' is written in the same white cursive font. A white curved line separates the title from the author's name. In the top left corner, there is a black circular badge with white text that reads 'NOW AN ORIGINAL STREAMING SERIES'. At the bottom right, there is a purple cursive quote: 'To All the Boys I've Loved Before', with a small purple flower icon next to it. The word 'bestselling' is written in a small, white, cursive font above the word 'author'.

Can Belly make a final choice between Jeremiah and Conrad? Find out in the conclusion of the New York Times bestselling The Summer I Turned Pretty trilogy from the author of To All the Boys I've Loved Before (now a major motion picture!).

Belly has only ever been in love with two boys, both with the last name Fisher. And after being with Jeremiah for the last two years, she's almost positive he is her soul mate. Almost. While Conrad has not gotten over the mistake of letting Belly go, Jeremiah has always known that Belly is the girl for him. So when Belly and Jeremiah decide to make things forever, Conrad realizes that it's now or never—tell Belly he loves her, or lose her for good.

Belly will have to confront her feelings for Jeremiah and Conrad and face the.....
